

Architecture

Development analysis

The firm in developers prepares analysis on physical development options as well as site selection procedures. At the request of clients, feasibility studies are also carried out.

Design

Multi-systems provide full design services on various types of projects from brief to detailed construction drawings. These services include comprehensive site planning and landscape. Proposals on large development designs are undertaken by use of computer aided design (CAD). The firm's head is fully networked thus ensuring the full capabilities of a modern design Office.

Project Supervision

The firm's supervisory team offers post contract services from possession of site through construction management to continuous monitoring of performance and project finance as well as co-ordination of the whole project team.

Planning

Preparations of planning studies and proposals is one of the key services provided by this firm. Master plans Resettlements and Urban Renewal proposals are monitored to implementation stage

Project Management

Project Management services are offered to all kinds of physical development projects. The firm possesses the expertise to plan and manage projects to be implemented within a limited time and financial target while satisfying all the required technical performance.

{gallery}gallery_demo{/gallery}